

which could be undertaken for the development of information enterprises in under-developed countries, with an evaluation of the material, financial and professional requirements and resources for the implementation of this programme", Recalling that Council resolution 718 (XXVII) of 24 April 1959 requested the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to undertake a survey designed to provide the elements for the programme of concrete action desired by the General Assembly, Noting with satisfaction the survey which has been carried out by means of a series of regional meetings in Asia, Africa and Latin America, Expressing its concern that the survey discloses 70 per cent of the population of the world to be lacking in adequate information facilities and to be thus denied effective enjoyment of the right to information, Considering that the information media have an important part to play in education and in economic and social progress generally, 1. Invites the Governments concerned to include adequate provision in their economic plans for the development of national information media ; 2. Reiterates the invitation contained in Council resolution 819 A (XXXI) of 28 April 1961 to the Technical Assistance Board, the Special Fund, the specialized agencies concerned, the regional economic commissions and other public and private agencies and institutions to assist, as appropriate, the less developed countries in developing and strengthening their national information media ; 3. Requests the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to continue to further the programme for development of information media and in particular to keep up to date as far as possible its survey on this subject and to report thereon as appropriate to the Commission on Human Rights and the Economic and Social Council ; 4. Transmits to the General Assembly, in accordance with its requests, the reports 28 on the survey carried out by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization as the basis of a programme of concrete action for development of the information media in less developed countries ; 5. Recommends that the General Assembly (a) Take this programme into account in connexion with the United Nations Development Decade ; and (b) Invite the Governments of the more developed countries to co-operate with less developed countries with a view to meeting the urgent needs of the less developed countries in connexion with this programme for the development of independent national information media, with due regard for the culture of each country. 28 Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, Thirty-first Session, Annexes, agenda item 10 (part I), document E/3437 and Add.I ; see also E/CN.4/820 and Add.I and 2. V National advisory committees on human rights2t> The Economic and Social Council, Recalling resolutions 9 (II) and 772 B (XXX) of 26 June 1946 and 21 June 1960 respectively concerning national and local advisory committees on human rights, Having examined the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/828 and Add.I), 1. Expresses its satisfaction at the fact that a number of Governments have submitted reports on the activities of national advisory committees on human rights and of similar bodies ; 2. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit his report, as also any information which may reach him at a later date, to the Governments of all States Members of the United Nations and of the specialized agencies ; 3. Invites again the said Governments to favour, in the light of conditions in their countries, the formation of the bodies referred to in resolution 772 B (XXX) of the Economic and Social Council and to encourage the activities of those already in existence. Such bodies could, for example, study questions relating to human rights, consider the situation as it exists nationally, offer advice to the Government and assist in the formation of a public opinion in favour of respect for human rights. VI Guide to national legal institutions and procedures for the protection or promotion of human rights 30 The Economic and Social Council, Recognizing that the experience of nations in the protection or promotion of human rights may be profitably shared, Recognizing that the preparation of a guide to national legal institutions and procedures for the protection or promotion of human rights would be useful, Requests the Secretary-General to prepare and publish, in instalments if necessary, a guide to national legal institutions and procedures for the protection or promotion of human rights. VII Report of the Commission on Human Rights The Economic and Social Council Takes note of the report of the Commission on Human Rights (eighteenth session).31 29 See paragraph 285. 30 See paragraph 300 and annex II B. 31 Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, Thirty-fourth Session, Supplement No. & 43
