

Page -3- SALE AND PURCHASE OF INTERMENT/INURNMENT RIGHTS All interment and inurnment rights are sold subject to payment of the amount set by the City of Athens. Interment and inurnment rights shall be fully paid prior to their use. The sale or transfer of any interment or inurnment right by any owner shall not be binding upon the Cemetery unless same shall first be duly approved in writing by the City of Athens. The City shall issue a "Certificate of Ownership" per Ohio Revised Code 517.07 to the new Owner subject to the provisions of said certificate. The same rule shall apply in all cases of assignment for interment or inurnment rights. Any and all transfers of any interment or inurnment right, whether same be by conveyance or assignment are subject to all rules and regulations of the Cemetery, which are now in full force and effect or which may be hereafter adopted. The subdivision of interment or inurnment right is not allowed without the consent of the Cemetery and no one shall be buried in any lot or not having an interest therein, except by written consent of the Cemetery. All work on lots or graves will be done by the employees of the City of Athens under the direction of the Cemetery, except when permission is otherwise granted. All grading, landscaping work, and improvements of any kind, and all care of lots or crypts and all plantings, trimmings, removals of trees, shrubs, and herbage of any kind and all openings of lots, all interments, inurnments, disinterment's and removals shall be made under the direction of the Cemetery. No enclosure of any kind, such as a fence, coping, hedge or ditch, shall be permitted around any grave or lot. Grave mounds shall not be allowed and no lot shall be raised above the established grade. No interment or inurnment right can be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or hypothecated without the written approval of the City of Athens. The City of Athens may exchange interment or inurnment rights, when desired by Owners. When such an exchange is made, the original conveyance must be surrendered by proper assignment, or by re-conveyance, if considered necessary by the City before any change is affected. Each owner is vested with the ownership of his or her interment or inurnment right for the sole purpose of interment or inurnment of human dead bodies. Under the rules and regulations of the Cemetery, the interment and inurnment rights cannot be conveyed without the consent of the City of Athens, nor any use, division or improvements of them be made which the City prohibits, or may deem improper. The Owner of interment or inurnment rights may dispose of same by will, subject to the foregoing conditions; If Owner dies in estate, the interment or inurnment rights will descend to his or her heirs according to law. The City of Athens cannot be responsible for the carrying out of the intent of the grantor. The general care of the entire Cemetery grounds and lots is assumed by the City of Athens. The City of Athens shall direct all improvements within the grounds and upon all lots and graves before, as well as, after interments have been made therein. They shall have charge of the planting, sodding, surveying and general improvements. No person other than the proper employees of the City of Athens shall be allowed to perform any work within the Cemetery without a written permit from the authorized representative of the Cemetery.
